Order of Worship

Welcome Rev. Dr. Dawn Rosignol

Prelude Paulette McClellan
Larghetto, Op. 21
by Charles Tournemire

*Call to Worship Charlotte Hoppe

One: In the beginning, God spoke the world into being, saying . . .

Many: "Let there be light!"

One: In the fullness of time, Jesus was sent by God into the world, saying . . .

Many: "I am the Light of the world."

One: Throughout all of time, God has brought goodness through the saints,

Many: the ones who shine the light of God in the world.

One: We gather this morning to worship our God,

Many: and give thanks for the saints who have gone before us.

One: In our remembrances, may we embrace our own call as saints of God:

Many: doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with God.

*Opening Hymn 283
Jesus, Stand Among Us

*Opening Prayer Charlotte

Eternal God, hope of all you have created. In Christ you weep with those who mourn even as you remind us of your love that overcomes even death. Unbind us from our brokenness, release us from captivity, and with Lazarus, raise us up with the hope of resurrection life. May we all join together with that great crowd of witnesses, the saints who forever sing praises to your glorious name. In your many holy names we pray. Amen.

First Scripture Reading Charlotte
John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. Jesus said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Jesus, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "O my Parent, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When Jesus had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

One: A word from God for the people of God. Many: Thanks be to God.

Pastoral Prayer

Rev. Dawn

Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Blessed One, our Father and our Mother. Holy is your name. May your love be embodied in the world. May your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Protect us in the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For all that we do in your love, and all that your love brings to birth, and the fullness of love that will be, are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Sermon Text

Isaiah 25:6-9

Rev. Dawn

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And God will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; God will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of God's people God will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for God, so that God might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in God's salvation.

One: A word from God for the people of God. Many: Thanks be to God.

This joyful Easter hymn brings together many images and responses evoked by Christ's Resurrection. As the second stanza affirms, it does turn mourning into dancing (Psalm 30:11), for this 20th-century text was written to fit the rhythms of this 16th-century Italian dance-song.
