Order of Worship

Welcome Rev. Dr. Dawn Rosignol

Prelude Adagio (from Sonata in Fm, op. 65) Paulette McClellan
by Felix Mendelssohn

*Call to Worship Anne Loveless

One: Welcome Beloveds! Let us remember that our confidence comes not from ourselves.

Many: Our confidence comes from God who enables us to serve and proclaim.

One: The Spirit gives life through God's love written on our hearts.

Many: In humility and faith, we move forward proclaiming the way of Christ.

One: God calls us to proclaim good news – not just with our words, but also in our actions.

Many: Welcoming the marginalized, honoring the overlooked, lifting up the vulnerable.

One: Let us now worship our God who sends us out to proclaim God's unconditional love,

Many: to serve and proclaim with boldness and grace.

*Opening Hymn These Treasured Children (vv 1, 2)

*Opening Prayer Anne

Gracious and empowering God. We give thanks that you have filled us with your Spirit, calling us to proclaim the good news not just in words, but also in service and compassionate care. Teach us, as Jesus taught his first disciples, that greatness is found in humility, and that your realm belongs to those we often overlook. Open our hearts to the wisdom of the child, the strength of the servant, and the power of your grace. In our worship of you today, renew our confidence in you alone and give us courage to be bold proclaimers of your love, ready to lift up the lowly, speak truth with gentleness, and live lives that point to your presence among us. In your many holy names we pray. Amen.

Anne

This text emphasizes the covenantal dimensions of baptism, most obvious in the baptism of children (though also present in the baptism of adults), including the worshipping community's commitment to acquaint children with salvation history and to learn from their humble trust.

Change My Heart, O God

♩=100

Change my heart, O God.

Make it ev-er true.

Change my heart, O God.

May I be like you.

You are the pot - ter;

I am the clay.

Mold me and make me;

this is what I pray.

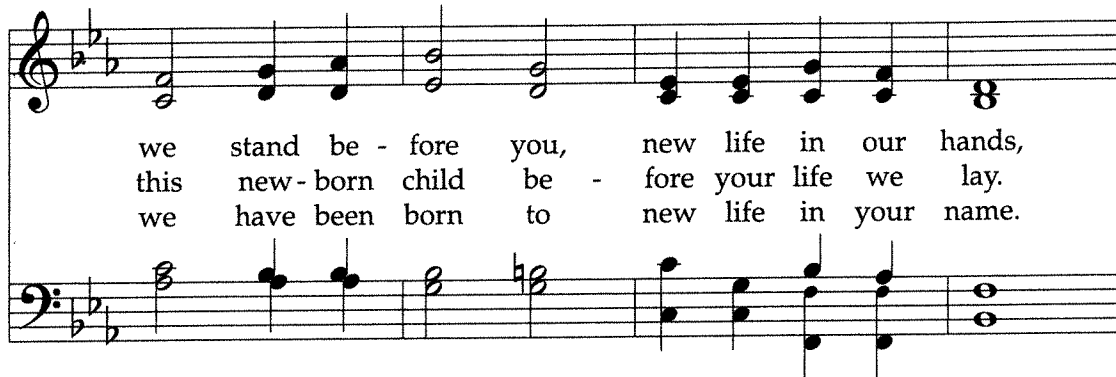

Change my heart, O God.
