NM Women's Chorus

by Craig Carnelia; arr. by Ryan Murphy

*Call to Worship

Janice Devereaux

One: Listen! Listen for the voice of God, naming us all: Holy. Beloved. Cherished. Valued.

All: We believe you delight in us!

One: Make us people who recognize and proclaim your beauty and goodness in unexpected places.

All: Surprise us. Challenge us. Transform us.

One: We trust in you, Holy One, to reveal to us the sacredness of every life, of every way of being, of every physical manifestation of your Spirit.

All: May it be so!

*Opening Prayer

Janice

Holy One, known to us in many ways but still unknown to us, we are together and we ask for your blessings as we rejoice as a community. Bless our pride together. May it also be a humble reflection of gratitude for who it is you have created us to be, each of us and us together. Bless our celebration that it be an expression of our joy in love and in health. Bless our laughter and let it be something that builds friendships and relationships. Bless our tears also and for the same reasons. If we encounter anyone who opposes us, bless them too. We humbly ask that fear and anger don't find a voice today. We humbly ask that love gets the last word and the clearest expression. Bless our differences as a source of our strength and a sign of our respect for one another and our love for you. Bless those for whom it takes great courage to be here that they may feel the abundance of life in such a way that it's no longer just words on a page. We feel that we are called to speak and to hear your vision of justice and of peace. Help us do that well and do it faithfully. Bless each one of us here today with your presence and our presence, one with another. You are faithful to us, we want to be faithful to you, to each other and to the community around us. Amen.

Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 12:12-13

Janice

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.

One: A word from God for the people of God.

Many: Thanks be to God.

Pastoral Prayer & Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Holy One, our Mother and Father, let your name be revered. Let your kin-dom come, let your will be done on earth as it is in the heavens. Give us today the bread we need for today. And forgive our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For yours is the kin-dom, the power, and the glory, now and forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Ephesians 2:16-22

Pastor Dave

Christ brought us together through his death on the cross. The Cross got us to embrace, and that was the end of the hostility. Christ came and preached peace to you outsiders and peace to us insiders. He treated us as equals, and so made us equals. Through him we both share the same Spirit and have equal access to the Father. That's plain enough, isn't it? You're no longer wandering exiles. This kingdom of faith is now your home country. You're no longer strangers or outsiders. You belong here, with as much right to the name Christian as anyone. God is building a home. He's using us all—irrespective of how we got here—in what he is building. He used the apostles and prophets for the foundation. Now he's using you, fitting you in brick by brick, stone by stone, with Christ Jesus as the cornerstone that holds all the parts together. We see it taking shape day after day—a holy temple built by God, all of us built into it, a temple in which God is quite at home.

One: A word from God for the people of God.

Many: Thanks be to God.
