

Tour de Acoma

is a 100, 50, and 25 mile bike challenge covering distinct areas on the Acoma and Laguna Pueblo reservations. An all-paved course that offers both the experienced and recreational cyclist a challenging and rare opportunity to ride through normally restricted tribal lands. This competitive course features opportunities for high speed racing as well as challenging uphill endurance tests. First, second, and third place participants, in both Men's and Women's categories receive highly-coveted Acoma pottery. All proceeds benefit the Haak'u Museum.
